

Northern Spirit Regional Council
Streams of Ministry Eligibility Policy

The Northern Spirit Regional Council requires that all vacant ministry positions will be open for application from ministry personnel in both streams of ordered ministry and designated lay ministry.

Community of Faith Profiles may not restrict applications from eligible ministry personnel.
Search committees may use stream of ministry as a criterion when considering applications.