Naramata Centre: Embracing the Spirit Video

For the past 70 years, Naramata Centre has gone through many variations of who they are and who they serve. In 2020 they planned for eight weeks of programs, as well as a new spring program, and were quite prepared and excited. Then, they had to reimagine how to be "in community," if they could no longer have 1,000 people onsite. So, they immediately began streaming some of their more popular events to see what would happen when they addressed the question, "Is it possible to create community when we are physically apart?". And the answer was, "Yes!" This led to the "All Access Pass" which enabled people to invite friends to come with them. They could join as many events as they wanted, and offer the discount to family, friends, or even their community of faith. This has grown in momentum: one event saw 9,000 attendees! The whole story of Naramata's strategic shift can be viewed in this video: watch the whole story.

Lewis said, “you can’t go back and change the beginning but you can start where you are and change the ending”. How are our practices in these days - our ways of being church “together while apart” - shaping us for newness? What are we discovering as an answer to the question, why is the church? Participants will share practices that nourish and connect us these days, and also, how they open our hearts to something new. There will be time to just be together to share stories, and time to be encouraged, to take heart in these days with Scriptural themes of annunciation and exile, stars and wilderness. For more information, or to register, please click here.

Circles of Support

We are all living through the same pandemic - "all the time, same storm but with different boats". We are also living through precarious economic times, austerity plans and divisive, dangerous politics. This non-faith-based support circle uses expressive art methods to process our thoughts and feelings around the current time. Each session will start by checking in with each other, then sharing feelings and thoughts, exploring possible hopeful futures through being creative together, and closing the time together. The circles will be held from 11:00 am to 12:30 p.m. (MT), on January 23, February 20 and March 20, 2021. You are invited to come to one circle or many, and to bring and eat your brunch (or not). The hope is that we will feel less alone during this stage of the pandemic and political climate. To register, please visit <https://www.rwuc.org/artistic-justice-workshops/>.
